Mr Gerard Lee will share about his personal and corporate life journey.

AREAS HE WILL TOUCH ON INCLUDE:

- His challenges and joys from a business and a spiritual perspective.
- How his Catholic faith has shaped the way he leads
- Practices that he initiated in the workplace that arose from his Christian beliefs and convictions.
- Dealing with situations that go against his beliefs.
- How he balances his social commitments, running a corporation and family.
- and more!

SPEAKER PROFILE

Gerard has been a parishioner of Holy Cross since 2000, having previously attended St Francis Xavier and Nativity of the BVM. A convert, he has been involved in various Catholic-related activities since his undergraduate days when he was active in the NUS Catholic Students' Society and Charismatic Prayer Group. Currently, besides being a warden in church, he is the chairman of Boys' Town and also sits on the boards of Archdiocesan Commission of Catholic Schools and St Gabriel's Foundation. He was previously the chairman of Catholic Junior College.

Work wise, Gerard is the CEO of Lion Global Investors (OCBC Group). He has also worked at both the Singapore SWFs (sovereign wealth funds), Temasek Holdings and GIC respectively, earlier in his career. Between these two stints, he worked for British and Swiss financial institutions.

He attended Montfort Junior & Secondary Schools and Catholic Junior College. He graduated from NUS with a B Sc (Hon's) and is a CFA (Certified Financial Analyst) and IBF Distinguished Fellow.

He and his wife are proud parents of three adult children.
